DECLARATION
I have written and understand that my details are correct, and all Merchandise Orders I have placed above are true. Any purchases done via Bank Transfer (BACS) or Cash are invoiced to the email address provided (if it is not provided, we can send an invoice through to your home address as optional). Card Payment I will receive a Receipt of the payment via e-mail address or mobile phone provided. I also understand all Merchandise Orders are being taken in bulk (or single use) to place orders through for printing at the start of the following month once I have made the purchase. If no purchase has been made when I receive my invoice through, #BreakingRecords Fitness reserves the right to delay your order until it has been paid, meaning your order for printing could be delayed further. For Posting your Merchandise Orders will require £5 for Postage and Packaging along with your order (if your order is more than 2 items, you may be required to pay more P&P. For Collection in Person on Merchandise Orders can be at our Head Office from the Address provided below, or if you're collecting your Merchandise Orders in Classes or Personal Training, please state this on the form for awareness. Please note we can keep your Merchandise Order for up to 3 months if you're collecting in person, otherwise we can reserve the right to ask you for Postage and Packaging for delivery, or your Merchandise Order may be resold elsewhere if you're refusing to collect in person or pay for delivery costs. Any complaints on refunds will NOT be upheld. Full Terms and Conditions can be found on our website for more information as below: www.breakingrecordsfitness.co.uk/terms-and-conditions
